Following the historic Ryder Cup format, the executives will be split into two, 12-person teams – a red team and a blue team. Each executive is asked to fundraise for their selected charity, in addition to the $2,500 buy-in paid by each participant. The players will be competing for a $50,000 grand prize – also for their charities. More than $22,000 has been raised since compiling the teams. Executive fundraising pages, featuring compelling stories on why they are raising funds for their selected charities, can be seen at: www.crowdrise.com/capitalcup.

About Sacramento Capital Cup

The Sacramento Capital Cup is a three day, charity golf tournament that unites 24 Sacramento executives to help raise up to $150,000 for 24 local charities. The tournament will be hosted from October 2, 2015 – October 4, 2015 at various area golf courses. The public is invited to the final day of the tournament at Granite Bay Golf Club. The tournament is being organized by DCA Partners, as well as other prominent sponsors. Tournament information can be found at: www.crowdrise.com/capitalcup.
